Rustenburg – Spring has sprung! The 1st of September - Spring day. Add some colour to your day! Nothing makes a room as inviting as a bowl of fresh, cut flowers. If you don't want it in a vase, wear them in your hair... This day also marks the beginning of National Arbour Week throughout South Africa. The national tree of 2011 is Papea capensis, common name - Jacket Plum. Why not celebrate the beginning of Spring by heading off to your nearest garden centre to get a Jacket-Plum tree to plant in your garden or any tree for that matter? Why not buy a few fruit trees to take your local school or community centre? What better place to be than outside in the garden? With this spirit the Platinum Weekly team celebrated Spring day at the Geelhout Garden Pavillion (Rustenburg). We also want to add "Spring" to the "Spring" Bokke. Go-Bokke!
