2 Timothy 3:16-17 (NIV)

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

Rustenburg – South Africa is facing turbulent times, from increased crime, corruption, poverty, discrimination and hatred to name but a few. SA Pray is a prayer initiative that calls to all to pray for our country. Recently nearly 1 000 000 South Africans gathered in Bloemfontein with one common goal; prayer for the salvation and blessing of South Africa. Reverend Jannie Pelser told the Platinum Weekly newspaper that the idea is to have all people from all creeds, denominations, cultural and racial backgrounds turn to God, through prayer. Reverend Pelser was a spiritual leader at Rant en Dal Prisma, Krugersdorp for more than 30 years when, at the beginning of 2017 he decided to devote his energies to initiatives such as the Pray SA. The SA Pray initiative will last from Ascension day, 25 May 2017 to the 10 days Pentecost, on 4 June 2017. Ascension celebrates the complete and successful sacrifice of Jesus and His ascension to heaven, where He is seated in a position of authority. Pentecost celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit to equip the believers for their calling on earth. The period 25 May till 4 June is significant because of Ascension Day and Pentecost. Even though these religious festivals are not public holidays, it is still celebrated by millions of believers in South Africa. “The idea is that people will pray, wherever they find themselves for the blessing of South Africa,” Rev Jannie said. “Whether this is in your office, your school, your gym, wherever you are during the hour of prayer, pray for our country.” This initiative has been supported by many churches and organisations but in the end people should get enthusiastic and pray for the well-being of our country. “Speak to your employer, your teacher, your friends and your colleagues, tell other people of the initiative and let’s pray for the well-being of South Africa.” SA Pray, a nationwide initiative supported by many Christians in South Africa, is launching a national call to pray.

SA PRAY!

Rev. Jannie Pelser
