Money Market SCAMS

Rustenburg/ Boitekong – In a ruthless scheme to rob people of cash paid over to family members and friends, three suspects were arrested in Boitekong after exceptional detective work.

An African female and two African males were arrested and appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday, 19 June, where they were released on R500 bail each. The case has been postponed to Tuesday, 1 August.

Frustrated members of the community reported various cases in Rustenburg, Mogwase and Boitekong.

An intensive investigation led to the arrest of an employee of Shoprite in the Boitekong Mall. The African woman would access details of the unique Money Market "M" number and pin number allocated for the transaction.

"She would then allegedly send the details to her partners in crime, who would make the withdrawals," Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson, said.
