Mother witnessed the death of her son

Rustenburg – A mother witnessed the death of her son when he was hit by a truck on the N4 highway just outside Rustenburg.

The son (20) and his mother (43) were walking next to the N4 on Saturday, 30 September, at approximately 05h30. "It appears that the truck driver (41) was avoiding a head-on collision with oncoming traffic when he hit the young man," says sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson. The Police are investigating a case of culpable homicide.

We extend our sincerest condolences to the mother, family and friends of the young man.

Tiny goes home after 3 years

Rustenburg – Through a thoughtful act of kindness the Waterfall Mall's management became unexpected heroes on Friday, 6 October.

Staff at the Waterfall Mall found a little dog in a passage way in the mall. Taking the little one into their offices, where he was fed and cared for, photos were taken and circulated on social media.

The dog was recognised by the daughter of the owner. She identified the aged dog as Tiny, who had gone missing three years ago. Mall management had already taken the dog to the Rustenburg SPCA, upon which the owners hastily made their way there to reunite with their four-legged family member. Says Jessica Varty, marketing manager of the Waterfall Mall: "A huge thank you to all who made this unforgettable reunion possible."

Tiny was found after three long years and reunited with his human family.
