

Blikkies vol Liefde vlooiemark en kunsuitstalling ten bate van die Rustenburg Kinderhuis

Rustenburg – Die Rustenburg Kinderhuis by die Rots Kerk kan sowat 100 kinders akkommodeer, maar voordat die doelwit daargestel kan word, is daar nog baie kloue om te kruis. Die span van Rustenburg Kindersorg is sterk skouer aan die wiel met verskeie projekte wat geloods word, maar kan die taak nie alleen behartig nie. Daarom het Roxy van den Berg, president van die Kindersorg Vrywilligers Klub (KVK), die klub daargestel om hart en siel in te spring om beide die Rustenburg Kinderhuis en die Rustenburg Kindersorg by te staan. “Ons is opreg dankbaar teenoor Tersia Theunissen, eienaar van Blikkies vol Liefde, wat besluit het om hul kunsuitstalling te vergroot dat ‘n vlooiemark ook aan die orde van die dag sal wees. Die vlooiemark se opbrengste sal as fondsinsamelingsprojek vir die Kinderhuis van stapel gestuur word,” sê Roxy in ‘n onderhoud met die Platinum Weekly koerant.

“Die dag belowe baie pret, maar vir nou is dit belangrik dat belangstellendes solank hul stalletjies boek,” sê Roxy. Stalletjies is beskikbaar teen R100 ‘n stalletjie. Blikkies vol Liefde, op die hoek van Helen Joseph en Loeriestraat, bied die vlooiemark en kunsuitstalling aan op Saterdag, 18 November vanaf 08h00 tot 15h00. Toegang beloop ‘n blikkie kos of R10 en die word aan Rustenburg Kindersorg gegee. KraftyKids bied die kunsuitstalling aan. Akademie vir kuns en kreatiwiteit teen bekostigbare pryse vir genotvolle kreatiwiteitsklasse vir alle ouderdomme is die leuse van KraftyKids. Indien jy hier betrokke wil word, skakel Anneke Richter gerus by 084-588 8307. Vir enige navrae oor die stalletjies, die dag se gebeure, of hoe om self ‘n bydrae te maak, skakel Tina by 076-245 7768 of Roxy by 082-441 6170.

Dikwena hopes for momentum

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – Platinum Stars advanced to the quarterfinals of the Telkom Knockout after defeating Maritzburg United on Friday evening, 27 October, at Harry Gwala stadium. Neither of the sides could fashion a chance to score in 90 minutes, which forced the game into extra time. However, extra-time could not produce a winning goal with both sides lacking the killer instinct in the final third. The match was decided by a penalty shoot-out, after Dikwena and Maritzburg failed to find the back of the net after 120 minutes of football. Where Dikwena goalkeeper Dino Visser was the hero, saving two penalties as they triumphed 3-1 in the shoot-out. Says Stars coach Rodger De Sa: “Ideally, in the position we are in this would have been nice if it was a league win. The worst-case scenario would have been not to win after playing 120 minutes of football, three days before the big game against Ajax Cape Town in the league. But hopefully this brings up some positive feelings in the squad and we can build up, and also play better in the league games.” Platinum Stars host Bloemfontein Celtics on Saturday in the Telkom Knockout quarterfinals at the Royal Bafokeng Stadium on 4 November; kickoff is at 15h30.

Youth art festival a success!

Rustenburg – It was a wonderful day to wander around at the Annual Youth Art Festival held at Residentia Sering on Saturday, 14 October. With so much to see and do, there were performances from the sweetest little preschoolers to the highly energetic teens. There were an abundant amount of food stalls, with food just like Ouma made it! Craft stalls, books and a line-up of entertainment made it a worthwhile day out! This festival is well loved and supported by the community of Rustenburg, a fundraising event with deserving recipients. Residentia Sering, a beloved retirement home in Rustenburg, would like to thank the organisers, the schools and Rustenburg for the support of this special day.

Creating beauty from recycled materials

Rustenburg – Grenville High School held their annual mother and daughter tea on Monday, 25 September. The newly elected leaders of the school had to decorate their tables in a manner not wasteful to the environment. Re-using was at the order of the day and even the young ladies on the catwalk impressed with their recycled garments.

NW boxing tournament a resounding success

Mmabatho – The North West Department of Education and Sport Development in conjunction with Boxing South Africa (BSA) and TK Boxing Promotions hosted the second edition of the North West Boxing tournament on Friday, 27 October at the Mmabatho Convention Centre. The victorious bouts were graced and officially opened by honourable North West premier, Supra Mahumapelo as well as MEC for Education and Sport Development, honourable MEC Sello Lehari. The eight-bout tournament put the province on the map as it drew provincial, national and international boxers to the heart of Mahikeng – with eyes fixated on the provincial title which was a 10-rounder between Tiisetso Modisadife of Kanana who bowed out Onke Khanzi of Marikana by Technical Knock-out (TKO) on the second round. The main bout, which was the chief attraction of the tournament, was the International Boxing Federation (IBF) vacant title flyweight between Moruti Mthlangane of KwaZulu-Natal who was defending the SA title against Adrin Diale of Philiphine. This bout was 12-rounder and Mthlangane won on Knock-Out (KO) the second round.

The rest of the scores are as follows:

- Luvelo Vikwa (North West) blew out Bafana Nophondo (Eastern Cape) by TKO on the second round.
- On the junior bantam weight, Sabelo Ngembiyane (Western Cape) outpointed Sibusiso Tiwani (Eastern Cape) by a TKO on the sixth round.
- Lightweight female international, crowned Ruth Chisale (Malawi) won against Kholosa Ndobayeni (North West) by TKO on round number six.
- Junior light weight international was taken by Koos Sibiya (Gauteng) who won on points against Crispin Molliati (Malawi).
- Michael Mokoena (Gauteng) defended and won the junior welter weight belt by TKO on the tenth round against Gift Bhola (Gauteng).
- Ronald Malindi (Gauteng) took the bantam weight title against Lihle Gingxana (Western Cape) on TKO on the fourth round.
