Scholar transport driver jailed for eight years for rape

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane sentenced 31-year-old scholar transport driver Odirile Modise to eight years' direct imprisonment on Thursday, 27 August 2026, after finding him guilty of raping his girlfriend. According to police spokesperson warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi, the offence took place in Tlhabane on 11 November 2023. Modise asked his girlfriend to have sex with him, but she refused and told him she was tired. Despite her refusal, he proceeded without her consent. The victim reported the incident to the police, leading to Modise's arrest. He was released on bail and remained on bail until sentencing. In addition to the prison term, Modise was declared unfit to possess a firearm and prohibited from working with children. The court noted that he had pleaded not guilty and shown no remorse. Acting district commissioner brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae welcomed the sentence and commended investigating officer detective warrant officer Christopher Maimela and prosecutor advocate Zola Mpayiphele for ensuring that justice was served. "No means no. Every person has the right to decide whether or not to engage in sexual activity, regardless of their relationship with the other person," brigadier Ntoagae said.

Women urged to stay alert when using e-hailing services

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Police have warned e-hailing commuters to exercise extra caution following several reported crimes involving female passengers in Rustenburg. According to warrant officer Ofentse Mokgadi, the reported incidents include robbery and sexual assault. Investigations are continuing.

Passengers – particularly women travelling alone – are advised to:

- Share their trip details and live location with someone they trust.
- Confirm the driver, vehicle and registration details before getting in.
- Where possible, pay electronically in advance to prevent unnecessary confrontations.
- Remain alert throughout the journey and report suspicious behaviour.

SAPS stressed that the warning is intended to promote reasonable precautions, not create panic. Anyone who has experienced a similar crime is urged to report it at the nearest police station. This information could help investigators identify and bring those responsible to justice.

Nuclear power can meet Africa’s and AI’s energy demands

Press release:
NWU | 9 September 2026

Platinum Weekly newspaper | SA – Their power and potential are sometimes more than the imagination can fathom. They inspire awe and wonder, fear and trepidation. They are as misunderstood as they are revered. And, as bedfellows, artificial intelligence (AI) and nuclear energy might just be the partnership Africa needs to alleviate its energy deficiencies and realise its energy potential.

Or, as nuclear energy expert prof. Bismark Tyobeka, principal and vice-chancellor of the North-West University (NWU), states: “It is a match made in heaven.”

Prof. Tyobeka has a point. When one of the defining technological forces of the 20th century converges with the undisputed technological phenomenon of the first 25 years of the 21st, the possibilities are difficult to ignore. Large-scale AI data centres require massive amounts of electricity and, whether now or in the foreseeable future, the continent will have to start building them. The current baseload supplies in most African countries will not suffice.

One of the prevailing concerns about nuclear energy is safety. Another is a lack of understanding of how the technology works. At the risk of severely oversimplifying electricity generation, very little has changed during the past century and more. Water is heated sufficiently to create steam, which spins a turbine connected to a generator. In the case of nuclear energy, radioactive material provides the heat.

Splitting the atom, it is not.

Let’s look at safety. Although nuclear accidents loom large in the public imagination, the historical record is less catastrophic than many assume. In more than 70 years of generating electricity from nuclear power, three accidents have come to define the debate: Three Mile Island in the United States in 1979, Chernobyl in the former Soviet Union in 1986 and Fukushima Daiichi in Japan in 2011.

Three Mile Island caused no deaths or injuries, while Fukushima caused no acute radiation injuries or deaths among workers or the public. At Chernobyl, two workers died in the initial explosion and 28 plant employees and firefighters died from acute radiation syndrome during the following weeks. That places the immediate death toll directly attributable to the three accidents at approximately 30. That figure does not tell the entire story. The World Health Organisation has estimated that Chernobyl could ultimately result in as many as 4,000 additional cancer deaths among the most heavily exposed groups. Fukushima’s evacuation also had serious health and social consequences, even though no deaths from acute radiation exposure were recorded.

New technologies, prof. Tyobeka argued, could make an already tightly regulated industry safer still. “AI is a game changer,” he said. “It can potentially enhance the safety features of nuclear power-plant designs. It can help us optimise the efficiency of nuclear power plants. It can also help us make rapid decisions across the entire nuclear value chain.”

Safety comparisons must also account for how much electricity each source produces. “Deaths per terawatt-hour” measures the estimated number of deaths caused by accidents and air pollution for every terawatt-hour (TWh) of electricity generated.

A widely used comparison places coal at approximately 25 deaths per TWh, oil at 18 and natural gas at three. The corresponding estimates are about 0.04 for wind, 0.03 for nuclear and 0.02 for solar. Put differently, coal is associated with more than 800 times as many deaths per unit of electricity as nuclear power.

The precise figures vary between studies, particularly for the safest energy sources, but the conclusion remains consistent: nuclear, wind and solar are vastly safer than fossil fuels. That safety record matters because the demand for dependable electricity is about to intensify.

During his public lecture, AI and Nuclear Power: Powering a Smarter, Sustainable Future, prof. Tyobeka acknowledged that both technologies remain controversial. Yet he argued that their convergence could help answer one of the most urgent questions of the digital age: where the immense quantity of reliable, low-carbon electricity required by AI will come from. “These two fields are converging to address one of the world’s most pressing energy challenges: delivering reliable, clean and secure electricity for a sustainable future.”

The equation is unforgiving. The more sophisticated AI becomes, the more electricity is required to train models, process information and keep hyperscale data centres operating without interruption. “The need for more electricity therefore immediately accompanies our advances in artificial intelligence,” he said. “We do not only need electricity; we need clean electricity.”

Nuclear power offers firm, round-the-clock generation, while small modular reactors (SMRs) and microreactors could bring it closer to the facilities that need it. Unlike conventional plants, their smaller footprint allows them to be deployed incrementally and, potentially, nearer to data centres, mines and industrial hubs. “SMRs and microreactors are particularly well suited because their size allows them to be deployed almost anywhere. They can be built in factories,” said prof. Tyobeka.

The relationship also works in reverse. AI could improve the design and operation of nuclear plants by accelerating reactor-core simulations, detecting anomalies and enabling predictive maintenance. Through digital twins – virtual models fed with information from physical plants – operators could identify deterioration before equipment fails. “You do not replace things only after they have broken; you can predict what should be changed and when.”

For Africa, however, the opportunity extends far beyond supplying servers. Reliable electricity could support mining, mineral processing, manufacturing, hydrogen production and desalination while strengthening the digital economy. “Everyone sees growth in Africa, but growth cannot happen without energy security,” he said. “You cannot attract investment where there is no energy security. We are holding Africa back if we do not make major investments in these technologies.”

The continent’s critical-mineral wealth adds another dimension. Prof. Tyobeka sees potential for SMRs in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Zambia, South Africa, Namibia and Guinea, where dependable power could allow more minerals to be processed closer to where they are mined. The barriers are considerable. Regulation has to keep pace with new reactor configurations, financing must be mobilised, supply chains strengthened and scarce specialist skills developed. Public trust will be just as important.

“People do not trust AI as we sit here. People do not trust nuclear power as we speak. How do you secure buy-in from such suspicious people? Transparency is key.” He called for government, regulators, development-finance institutions, banks, investors, universities and industry to act together. Localisation, he argued, must be part of the bargain so that deployment creates jobs and builds enduring African capability.

“Nuclear power can enable Africa’s AI and industrial future. We have seen that the need is real and the opportunity is now.”

Prof. Bismark Tyobeka

MORE THAN CLEAN-UPS: ACTION THAT CHANGES RUSTENBURG

The dedicated Our Ward Matters team continues to prove that consistent action can create visible change across Rustenburg.

A clearer way forward: Our Ward Matters restored 42 road and street signs in Protea Park on Tuesday 1 September.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Our Ward Matters (OWM) continued its work across Rustenburg this past week, addressing overgrown vegetation, litter, illegal dumping and public-safety concerns while encouraging residents to take pride in their surroundings. Founded by Ward 15 councillor André van Dyk and led by Cllr Van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, the initiative remains active in Wards 15, 16 and 17.

Residents’ concerns investigated

On Wednesday 2 September 2026, Cllr Van Dyk visited Boven Street after residents asked him to investigate several longstanding concerns. These include allegations of businesses trading without the required permits, further businesses opening in the area, illegal dumping and a growing informal settlement in the bushes near the Helen Joseph Drive bridge. Residents also raised safety concerns and questioned what permission had been granted for commercial activities at the site. The concerns will be reported and escalated to the relevant authorities. According to Van Dyk, the visit demonstrated that Our Ward Matters does far more than clean-ups – it listens to residents, investigates complaints and works to ensure that problems receive attention.

Signs of positive change

On Tuesday 1 September, the Ward 15 team worked in Protea Park, concentrating on Mispel Avenue, surrounding streets and the area near Laerskool Protea Park towards Wildevy Centre. The team removed rust, prepared and repainted 42 road and street signs – with one group completing 26 signs and another restoring 16. Damaged, faded or missing signs are more than an eyesore. They can create safety risks for motorists, emergency services and visitors who depend on clear street identification. While working, the team also identified and reported other matters requiring municipal attention.

Cleaning where it counts

On Wednesday and Thursday, 2 and 3 September, the team continued its work in Azaleapark, Selly Park and along Helen Joseph Drive towards Robin Avenue. Overgrown grass was cut along Langeberg Avenue and towards Kougaberg, improving visibility and reducing the risk of veld fires. Near Laerskool Selly Park, the team cleaned a stormwater drain, removed grass growing into the road and collected more than 40 bags of rubbish. Potholes and mud along Drakensberg Avenue following the rain were also identified for reporting. The initiative thanked the RLM Waste Department for working alongside its volunteers.

Consistency creates change

For almost five years, Our Ward Matters has continued showing up week after week. What began with one clean street has grown into a community movement operating across three wards. The team cuts grass, clears overgrown areas, removes litter and illegal dumping, cleans stormwater drains and helps improve safety and visibility. Its vision is now to reach even more areas of Rustenburg – but community support is essential.

Residents, businesses, churches, organisations, petrol stations and garages are invited to assist with petrol, equipment, refuse bags, brushcutter line, maintenance or financial contributions.

“Don’t stand on the sidelines waiting for someone else to make Rustenburg better. Get involved, take ownership and become part of the solution.”

Flame of Hope lights up Rustenburg

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Flame of Hope brought a powerful message of courage, unity and inclusion to Rustenburg on Friday, 28 August 2026, during the opening ceremony of the Special Olympics South Africa National Summer Games. Ceremonially handed over by Dr Mathews Phosa, the torch passed through the hands of national, provincial and local leaders. Its journey reflected their shared commitment to empowering athletes with intellectual disabilities and celebrating their talents, determination and achievements. Minister Sindisiwe Chikunga, North West Provincial commissioner lieutenant general Arthur Adams and Rustenburg executive mayor Sheila Mabale-Huma officially declared the Games open. The Flame of Hope symbolises the courage, perseverance and extraordinary spirit of Special Olympics athletes. As host city, Rustenburg welcomed this inspiring celebration of diversity and sport – giving every athlete an opportunity to participate, shine and feel empowered.

The three-day Games concluded on Sunday, 30 August 2026, after bringing together more than 600 athletes from all nine provinces. Participants competed in athletics, basketball, bocce, football, netball, swimming and table tennis. The event also helped identify athletes who could represent Team South Africa at the 2027 Special Olympics World Summer Games in Santiago, Chile.

Dr Rakhudu, kgosana of Tsitsing village and representative of the Royal Bafokeng Tribal Authority, joined Rustenburg executive mayor Sheila Mabale-Huma in proudly holding the Flame of Hope.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Do you believe in luck?

Some people believe success comes from being in the right place at the right time, while others credit hard work, faith and wise choices. Do you think luck plays a role in life, or do we create our own opportunities? Yes or no?

"Yes, I believe luck can influence our lives, although it is not the only reason people succeed. Sometimes, being in the right place, meeting the right person or receiving an unexpected opportunity can change everything."

Pedro Coelho, Rustenburg

"Yes. I have experienced several situations in which luck seemed to save me. Not everyone is equally fortunate, but I believe that having a positive outlook can invite more good opportunities into your life."

THE BOKS' PERFECT FINAL RECORD!

The Springboks have reached four Rugby World Cup finals – and won every one! South Africa lifted the Webb Ellis Cup in 1995, 2007, 2019 and 2023, becoming the first nation to claim four men's world titles. Even more impressive: the Boks have won half of the eight World Cup tournaments in which they have competed. Their current form against the All Blacks also gives supporters reason to smile: following victories in Cape Town and Johannesburg, the Boks lead the 2026 four-Test series 2–1, with one match remaining.

FROM MOOINOOI TO THE STARS!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Mooinooi – Sixteen-year-old Grade 10 learner Reuben Duvenhage is reaching for the stars after being selected as one of four learners who will represent South Africa in the Orbita 26 International Space Mission Programme. The journey began with approximately 50 learners from several schools completing an initial selection test. Only 21 advanced to the interview stage, including five learners from Silver Creek School – the highest representation by any participating school. Reuben successfully completed his interview and earned a place in Team South Africa. The group is scheduled to travel to the United Arab Emirates and Russia from 10 October to 5 November 2026. They will explore space science, technology, engineering and innovation while helping to develop and build a satellite destined for orbit.

No limits on his dreams
Reuben's achievement is especially inspiring because he lives with Type 1 diabetes. Managing the condition requires daily discipline, responsibility and resilience, yet he refuses to allow his diagnosis to determine how far he can go. His journey carries a powerful message for other young people facing health challenges: your circumstances need not define your future or limit your dreams. Silver Creek School is immensely proud of Reuben, who will represent his school, community and country on an international stage. Community members and businesses interested in sponsoring Reuben's journey can contact Laurian Duvenhage on 065 536 8796. For school enquiries, contact the administrator on 076 467 8494 or email admin@silvercreekschool.co.za

Reuben Duvenhage (16), a Grade 10 learner at Silver Creek School, is one of four young South Africans selected for the Orbita 26 International Space Mission Programme.

Impies reg om vir die Luiperds te brul!

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Rustenburg Impala Rugbyklub bars van trots nadat drie van sy spelers, vir die Luiperds Plattelandspan gekies is. Marnus Venter was ook in aanmerking, maar kon weens 'n kniebesering ongelukkig nie gekies word nie.

Joe Engelbrecht, Nathon van Aswegen en Dries van der Merwe,

Die klub en sy borge wens die drie spelers alle sterkte toe vir die Platteland-toernooi, wat van 21 tot 26 September 2026 in Nylstroom plaasvind.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Neither cold, wind nor muddy trails could dampen the community spirit at the annual Lighthouse Spring Cycle and Fun Run, held at Brauhaus Afrika on Saturday, 5 September 2026. Following a stormy night of heavy rain and strong winds, athletes arrived to a bitterly cold morning. Gusts battered tents, gazebos and banners, but more than 350 enthusiastic participants were ready when the fun run started at 07:00. The cyclists set off at 08:30 to tackle the 5km, 8km and 16km routes. Puddles from the previous evening's downpour added an extra challenge – and plenty of muddy fun – along the single-track sections. Although the cycling event was intended as a social ride, several competitive cyclists could not resist pushing the pace. Wiehan van der Merwe was the first rider home in the 16km event, followed by Scott Williamse and Chris Petersen. The organisers thanked everyone who supported this worthwhile community project, including the sponsors, spectators and members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club. After braving the chilly conditions, participants warmed up with hot beverages and enjoyed the welcoming atmosphere at Brauhaus Afrika.
