Word of the week

Love

Ok logophiles, don't think because you are familiar with a word, you really understand it... Sometimes you have to feel it, like Albert Einstein said, "How on earth are you ever going to explain in terms of chemistry and physics so important a biological phenomenon as first love?" Our word of the week is Love. Love is difficult to define. How do you avoid confusing it with infatuation or lust? Philosophers and psychologists both have attempted to define love, per least its difference from infatuation and lust. If you are looking to find love, the following observations may be helpful. Love is much more than a risk, but is a risk that one can take and grasp and fall into a dark abyss or dig oneself a hole and only crawl back when you overcome your emotions. How can one truly define what love is? Not even an experienced person can truly grasp or explain love to its truest and deepest meaning. Its concepts are just a never ending story of an open book of experiences. But love does lie in one's heart, where memories are but shadows lingering in your soul. Love is giving someone the power to break your heart, but trusting them not to. Remember, if you want to share a word yourself, just drop me an email at news@platinumweekly.co.za and we will publish! Hear from you soon!

Counterfeit Cigarettes Busted!

The Police at Skilpadshek Port of Entry arrested four Zimbabwean nationals, ages ranging between 24 and 25 years, for possession of counterfeit cigarettes on Wednesday, 20 April 2011, approximately 07h35. It is alleged the Police were patrolling the borderline when they spotted a "suspect" white Ford bakkie along the fence. When they approached the vehicle, some of the occupants fled and crossed the Botswana border. The Police however, questioned the four remaining occupants and searched the bakkie. During their search, they discovered 2 153 cartons of counterfeit cigarettes, according to Brigadier Thulani Ngubane. These cigarettes, with the estimated value of R46 500, are allegedly derived from Zimbabwe. The suspects were arrested and the cigarettes were confiscated. The accused, Douglas Marowa (25), Reward Gonza (24), Edson Chikwanha and Richard Tafireyi (25) appeared briefly before the Lehurutshe Magistrate's Court.
