Bangladesh

Potchefstroom – SA (A) got off to a brisk start in their pursuit of their visitors' below-par 218/8 thanks to Loots Bosman's 33 off 27 balls, which included seven fours, and Jacques Rudolph's 30 off 33. This extremely exciting event took place in Potchefstroom, Senwes Park on 27 April 2011.

Heino Kuhn went cheaply for nine, but it was the partnerships between Imraan Khan (58 not out) and Dean Elgar (41), and then Khan and Vaughn van Jaarsveld (42 not out) that did the trick for the home side.

Earlier, Nadif Chowdhury (64) and Nasir Hossain (66) enjoyed a 103-run partnership for the seventh wicket to get Bangladesh A out of early trouble at 88/6.

Kyle Abbott did the damage for SA (A) with a haul of 2/34 from his nine overs, with Ethy Mbhalati also chipping in with two wickets.

Bangladesh won the first of five unofficial ODIs by six wickets in East London last Tuesday, however, SA (A) stuck right back with a 56-run victory in Paarl two days later. The third game in Kimberley on Saturday was abandoned because of rain.
