Pepsi partners up with Comrades

World-renown Beverage Company, Pepsi Cola has partnered up with the Comrades Marathon Association (CMA) as the official carbonated beverage supplier for the next three years. Pepsi South Africa has redefined the soft-drink industry in the country and the CMA is proud to be associated with this leading international brand. Pepsi Cola, who has been affiliated with major sporting events around the world, will provide 44 000 litres of Pepsi Cola and other carbonated beverages to the Comrades Marathon, which will be distributed through the 48 refreshment stations along the Comrades Marathon route. To top it off, they will supply 450 000 175ml Pepsi Cola branded paper cups at the refreshment stations on race day. Merlin Norman the Marketing Manager for Pepsi SA added that the company is proud to be associated with the world's greatest ultra marathon. "We are excited to be involved in this year Comrades Marathon

– this event is one of the highlights in South Africa's sporting calendar and we hope this year will be better than ever," she said. Sifiso Nzuza, Board Member of the Comrades Marathon Association said he was very excited about the new relationship between the Comrades Marathon Association and Pepsi. "It is so fitting that two major brands could come together under the banner of the greatest sporting event in South Africa. This sponsorship will aid those runners who still prefer carbonated drinks for sustenance while running the Comrades Marathon. On behalf of the CMA, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to Pepsi," he added. The 2011 Comrades Marathon has attracted staggering numbers with 19 617 runners confirmed. The race takes place on Sunday 29 May 2011 and start at 05h30. The race is broadcasted live on SABC2.
