Spinning...

Rustenburg – Two vehicles were involved in a car accident on Monday (7 May 2011) at about 19h00 in front of the Home Affairs offices, Bethlehem Drive. According to eye witnesses on scene, the driver of a blue Corolla 1.6 was spinning and eventually lost control over his vehicle, causing him to collide with a grey Yaris on his right side. Both the Yaris and Corolla carried four passengers. Six of them sustained injuries and were taken to nearby hospitals. The injuries included lacerations and abrasions, and one individual sustained head injuries.

Green, Orange, Red.

Rustenburg – On the c/o Oliver Thambo and Klopper street, yet another car accident occurred during the past week. Approximately 22h00 on Monday evening (9 May 2011), a Toyota Corolla and a Daihatsu Terios collided. According to an eyewitness on scene, the Toyota skipped a red light and in the process crashed into the Daihatsu. According to police on scene, it is alleged that alcohol was involved, as some beer bottles fell out of the car when the door was opened to inspect the passengers' condition. Luckily no injuries were sustained during this accident; however, the police are investigating the case.
