Comrades Feva!

Potchefstroom Pianist runs 3rd Comrades

Mr. Waldo Weyer, senior lecturer in piano at the School of Music, NWU will run his third consecutive Comrades Marathon this Sunday. He is a member of the NWU-Pukke Athletics Club. He appears to be the only classical pianist in South Africa to have completed this gruelling marathon. He says that he is looking forward to experiencing the unique Comrades spirit again, and he hopes that his students will show the same stamina in their preparation for the forthcoming exams!

In the run-up to the 2011 Ultimate Human Race which has netted an astounding 19 523 entrants, the Comrades Marathon Association (CMA) has embarked on another community-enhancing initiative. In light of the challenges facing the city, in respect of the unpicked litter and dirty streets, the CMA has done its bit to promote civic pride by taking an active role in furthering the Msunduzi Municipality's Extended Public Works Programme and its target of a cleaner environment.

This is in line with the CMA's annual build-up to the enduring race, where a different theme takes centre stage every year, with active community participation at the heart of it. NGO's like the Youth of Choice and New Era Youth Organisation, as well as the local St Nicholas School and the Msunduzi Municipality joined the CMA in the clean-up drive.

"We at the CMA believe that charity begins at home and with Pietermaritzburg being the home of the Comrades, we are enthusiastic and energized to promote a cleaner environment and work with our communities.

We acknowledge that we have a right to a neat and tidy environment but it is also our responsibility to clean up our neighbourhood," said CMA Marketing Coordinator, Thami Vilakazi. Brian Zuma, Marketing Manager of Msunduzi Municipality said, "We hold the Comrades very dear to our hearts. This nation-building event continues to put the City of Pietermaritzburg high up on the sporting calendar."
