Rustenburg – How do you really treat your dad? You take him to a car show like the one hosted on Thursday, 16 June 2011, at the Waterfall Mall.

Wow! Mustangs, Porsches, Dodges, Ford Model Ts... All the cars your dad grew up with and some of the cars he still dreams about... Most of the cars were still in immaculate condition – even after all these years! My dad was smiling like a little boy looking at a Christmas tree. You know the saying, 'Men never grow up'? Well, it's true – their toys only get more expensive.

If you missed this amazing, truly inspiring event – don't blow a gasket. It's an annual event which has been running for 5 years. The first show started with 86 Golden Oldies, and today the number has risen to about 300 vehicles.

"It's the best turnout yet!" exclaimed one of the spectators. Some enthusiasts even went as far as, "This was the perfect getaway during the public holiday. The vehicles were sleek, sexy and simply AWE-SOME! Almost like my girlfriend." Yip... totally a guy thing, right?

No! The exhibition was filled with women from all over. It was truly the perfect family get-together to celebrate Father's Day.

One of the serious enthusiasts, Mr. Philip Mostert showcased some of his spectacular collector's pieces. You can always go to his website www.philipclassics.co.za to view numerous collector's items.

Ultimately the goal of this day was to raise funds for welfare.
