

Queen Mother visits Fields College

Queen Mother and Mrs A Holding (Principal, Fields College)

Rustenburg – On Monday 16 May, Her Queen Mother of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Mmemogolo Semane B. Molotlegi addressed the grade 10-12 learners at Fields College. Her overall goal was to encourage and challenge the learners to make the most of the advantages and opportunities they are fortunate enough to possess.

The visit of the Queen Mother will be remembered fondly as a spotlight on the hopes and aspirations of our learners at Fields College.

Top Drum Majorettes

Potchefstroom – The Potchefstroom High School for Girls' drum majorette team has outdone themselves once more! They have claimed the title of North West Champion of Champions for the 7th consecutive year at the North West Provincial Championship competition which was held in Klerksdorp last week.

Having qualified to take part in all six categories that drum majorettes has to offer, they have walked away with a first place in all six of these categories and will be representing the province at the South African National Championships which will be held in Durban during the July holidays. Good luck girls!

Player of the tournament, Otseping Mogale, from All Nations was very proud in his Blue and white colours.

Emergency: Save the Vredefort Dome!

A delegation from the Department of Environmental Affairs is going to the Unesco meeting in Paris, France, starting on Monday.

The Minister requires proof of people's support for the Declaration of the Vredefort Dome as a World Heritage Site before she finally signs the proclamation. Your urgent response is required DIRECTLY to the following email addresses in order to prove public support: Send a message stating "I/we support the declaration of the Vredefort Dome as a World Heritage Site" and sign with your name and/or the organisation you represent, along with any other comment you wish to make.

- fmketeni@environment.gov.za (Mr Fundisile Mketeni: Deputy Director DEA) and to
- november@environment.gov.za (Mr Nutisi November: Manager, World Heritage Sites).

If sufficient messages are not received, the Minister may not feel justified in signing the proclamation, so your support is vital!

This email comes to you from the Dome Action Group. Please help us to get the Dome declared – finally, once and for all!
