TRAUMA RESCUE EMERGENCY MEDICAL CARE ER24
0861 789 911
REAL HELP, REAL FAST

What is the 'Golden Hour'?
In an emergency situation, the golden hour refers to a time period lasting from a few minutes to several hours following traumatic injury being sustained, during which there is the highest likelihood that prompt medical treatment will prevent death. It is well established that the victim's chances of survival are greatest if they receive care within a short period of time after a severe injury. Some have come to use the term to refer to the core principle of rapid intervention in trauma cases, rather than the narrow meaning of a critical one-hour time period. In cases of severe trauma, especially internal bleeding, surgical intervention is required. Complications such as shock may occur if the patient is not managed appropriately and expeditiously. It therefore becomes a priority to transport patients suffering from severe trauma as fast as possible to specialists, most often found at a hospital trauma centre, for definitive treatment, and this is where the Medical Helicopter service becomes vital. Because some injuries can cause a trauma patient to deteriorate extremely rapidly, the lag time between injury and treatment should ideally be kept to a bare minimum; over time, this lag time has come to be specified as a now-standard time frame of no more than 60 minutes, after which time the survival rate for traumatic patients is alleged to fall off dramatically. Paramedics describe the 'Golden Hour' as "a statistical inference which shows that the patient's ultimate outcome is directly proportional to what is done for them immediately. Therefore, if you are critically injured you have less than 60 minutes to survive. You might not die right then; it may be three days or two weeks later — but something has happened in your body that is irreparable."

Noodlottige ongeluk: R501
Northam – Op Maandag, 27 Junie 2011, ongeveer 12h30, was wyle Mev. Ria Meyer, 38 jaar oud, op pad vanaf Northam op die R510. Ongeveer 15 km vanaf Mogwase, by die Zandfontein afdraai het 'n bus van die Bojanala Busdienste (in die rigting van Mogwase) sonder waarskuwing skielik in die Zandfontein pad ingedraai met noodlottige gevolge. (volgens ooggetuies) Wyle Mev. Meyer het die bus probeer vermy en met 'n aankomende trok reg van voor gebots. Die trok het die Chico vir ongeveer 45 meter gestoot en opgefrommel. Ria Meyer is op slag dood. Die drywer van die trok was erg geskok en het gesê dat hy sy bes probeer het om die Chico te vermy. Die saak word deur Mogwase SAPD ondersoek. Sy laat haar man, Andre, 'n seun van 18 en 'n dogtertjie van drie jaar oud agter. Mev. Meyer word Donderdag, 30 Junie, in Johannesburg te ruste gelê. Die personeel van die Platinum Weekly wens die Meyer familie alle sterkte toe in hierdie moeilike tyd.
