Concert Proposals for 2012

Potchefstroom – The School of Music [North West University, Potchefstroom Campus] annually presents about 15-20 concerts at the Conservatory in its official concert series. This usually includes a wide variety of concerts, from solo instruments and singing to chamber music groups and orchestras. The styles range from strictly classical to indigenous music, jazz and popular music. The planning for the concert series in 2012 starts in September of this year already, and music lovers are invited to express their opinions and preferences for concert productions. Please send e-mail to music@nwu.ac.za and tell us what YOU would like to hear in the Conservatory Hall.

A Romantic Programme...

Potchefstroom – The School of Music (North West University, Potchefstroom Campus) supports South African musicians by presenting concerts for them in the annual concert series. The young ob oist, André van Daalen, can be heard on Tuesday 16 August 2011 at 19h30 in the Conservatory Hall when he will perform with the famous Albie van Schalkwyk as pianist. Their programme will focus on works for oboe and piano from the Romantic era with compositions by Schumann, Saint-Saëns and Fauré, amongst others. André van Daalen was the overall winner of the ATKV Muziq Competition in 2004. He has been studying and performing in Europe as soloist and in orchestras since 2002. In 2010 he assumed the position of principal cor anglais at the Hessian State Theatre Orchestra in Wiesbaden, Germany. Albie van Schalkwyk is well-known as one of South-Africa's most sought-after pianists and accompanists. After teaching at the universities in Potchefstroom and Bloemfontein, he took up a post as Associate Professor in piano at the College of Music in Cape Town in 2009. He is the 2009 winner of the Huberte Rupert Prize, awarded by the SA Academy of Arts and Sciences to him for his contribution to ensemble playing and teaching over the past 30 years. Tickets for this concert are available during office hours at the Conservatory, tel. (018) 299-1692 / music@nwu.ac.za or from half an hour before the concert at the box office at R50 each for adults and R30 each for learners, students and pensioners.
