Death by Wheel Bearing

7-year-old daughter, was about 15km from Rustenburg on the N4 and obeying the speed limit. After the vehicle rolled a couple of times, the two occupants were flung from the vehicle. Preliminary investigations suggest that neither was wearing their safety belts at the time of the accident. Motorists immediately stopped in order to lend assistance.

Rustenburg – The tragic circumstances leading to the death of a 34-year-old woman in an accident on Wednesday, 10 August, 2011 could have been averted if better quality control had been applied to the faulty wheel on the Tata Chana hatchback she was driving. According to an eyewitness, the left rear wheel of the Tata broke off as the mother, who was travelling with her

They found the woman's body lying about 10m away from the scene in the field next to the road and her daughter about 15m from the vehicle. Fortunately the daughter survived this tragic ordeal. "There were no other vehicles involved in the accident and there were no potholes on the road either," confirmed an eyewitness.

One of the passing motorists – an Intermediate Life Support paramedic – tried to restore the woman's breathing by initiating CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation). Continue on P3...

Man arrested for Phakoe's murder

Rustenburg – Citizens of Rustenburg is on tender hooks after the arrest of Enoch Matshaba (40) on Saturday (6 Aug). Mr Matshaba who was arrested at his home by the Hawks, was the bodyguard to former Rustenburg Mayor Matthew Wolmarans. The questions on everybody's lips are? – Who is going to be implicated? Who is next in line to be arrested? Mr. Matshaba appeared briefly before Magistrate Andrew Steenbok of the Rustenburg Magistrate's Court on Monday 8 August to give answer to charges of murdering former Rustenburg Local Municipality Councillor Moss Phakoe.

He is remanded in custody until August 16 for a bail application. It is suspected that Mr Matshaba was merely the hitman, following orders of the masterminds behind Phakoe's murder. Continue on P3...
