Casual Day

For persons with disabilities

Casual Day around the Corner!

Casual Day exceeded all expectations once again by raising over R18 million during the 2010 campaign. This would not have been possible without the help of the media. Every article, snippet, diary entry and advertisement helped us to raise awareness for persons with disabilities.

This year we celebrate Casual Day with "Rock Stars" as a theme. "Make the world rock in your suit or your frock. Dress as you please and support persons with disabilities!" So... donate R10 for a Casual Day sticker and be part of something GREAT! For more info go to www.casualday.co.za.

Make the decision to live for the moment, laugh more, appreciate more, care more and give more. And if, in giving, you choose to give to Casual Day, I thank you from the bottom of my heart and assure you that your contribution really touches the life of another person in a much needed way.

Selly Park visits Sunbake Bakery

Grade 3 Educator, Mrs Harmse, and learners of Selly Park Convent Primary School during their recent visit to Sunbake Bakery.

Rustenburg - Grade 3 learners from Selly Park Convent Primary School went on an outing to Sunbake Bakery recently and were shown the entire production process from start to finish. After spending an interesting morning amidst mouth watering smells, each learner received a slice of oven warm, freshly baked bread - nothing could be better! Selly Park Primary would like to thank Sunbake Bakery for this informative and interesting visit.
