Dutch Quintet with a Unique Line-up of Instruments

Potchefstroom – The Dutch Calefax Reed Quintet, established 25 years ago, is known for its virtuoso performances of music from eight centuries. Their repertoire range from early music, renaissance and baroque to jazz and contemporary music, specially arranged or composed for their unique line-up: oboe, saxophone, clarinet, bass clarinet and bassoon. So forget what you know about a traditional wind quintet - Calefax are a "reed quintet" and totally unique!

Their South African tour, in celebration of their 25th jubilee, moves from the Cape to Pretoria and music lovers from Potchefstroom and the surrounding region are also able to hear them on Tuesday 6 September 2011 at 19:30 in the Conservatory Hall. The programme will include works from Bach to Shostakovich, and even the South African composer, Kevin Volans.

Tickets for this concert are available during office hours at the Conservatory, tel. (018) 299-1692 / music@nwu.ac.za or from half an hour before the concert at the box office at R50 each for adults and R30 each for learners, students and pensioners.
