Policeman shoots girlfriend

Mogwase – A police officer allegedly shot his girlfriend three times before reportedly killing himself in an incident that took place on Tuesday 5 September in Mogwase.

Police have registered a case of attempted murder and have opened an inquest docket. It is alleged that on Tuesday, a constable stationed at Mogwase Police Station shot his girlfriend at her rented place. She sustained injuries on the right cheek, breast and leg. The alleged shooting incident took place at about 19h00. It is suspected that the murder could have been prompted by an argument that ensued between the deceased and the victim.

The constable allegedly fled the scene immediately after firing shots at his girlfriend. Police later located him at his rented place, at Tsweleng in Wolmaranstad, where he was found dead. The victim (girlfriend) was taken to the Wolmaranstad Hospital. She is in a stable condition and will be referred to the Klerksdorp Hospital for further examination.

Police are still investigating whether the deceased shot himself or not, and at this stage no foul play is suspected.

Shack fire kills 5

Ventersdorp – Five people passed away after their shack caught fire on Friday September 2 at about 23h45 in Welgevonden Village, near Ventersdorp. According to police investigations, it is alleged that an electrical box inside the shack exploded and caused the fire. A 15-year-old girl, who was inside the shack, woke up and saw that the shack was on fire. She managed to escape through a window and tried to rescue the remaining people in the house that were trapped. She managed to open the door from the outside, but all the occupants sadly passed away. The fire was extinguished by the Fire and Emergency services. The five occupants are related to each other, but have not been identified as yet.
