Beer & Food up for grabs!

Rustenburg – One person was killed following an accident that occurred on the N4 Road on September 4 at around 03h15.

According to eyewitnesses, a Shoprite truck collided with another truck which was transporting beer, after failing to overtake. The accident resulted in the beer containers being flung from the truck, onto the tarmac. Shoprite items were scattered all over the road, it took hours to clear the road. Numerous bystanders grabbed whatever they could gather and disappeared into the night.

Two of the three people travelling in the Shoprite truck were taken to the Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital for treatment. The remaining occupant of the truck was declared dead upon arrival of the paramedics. The people occupying the other truck were not injured.

SAPS are still investigating the case to establish facts.

Biker dies in Collision

Rustenburg/ Kroondal – On 3 September, a motorcyclist lost his life in a tragic accident after he collided with a bakkie. The accident occurred around 08h00 while he was travelling on the N4 road near Kroondal, approximately 17 km from Rustenburg. Police – who are still investigating the case – are yet to establish the circumstances leading to the accident. After arriving at the scene, paramedics discovered that the biker had died from multiple poly-trauma injuries sustained during the crash. The driver of the bakkie sustained shoulder injuries, while the female passenger sustained neck and shoulder injuries. Both were taken to Peglerae Hospital for treatment.

I walk a Straight Line...

Rustenburg – A suspected drunk driver of a Toyota Tazz is lucky to have sustained minor injuries after his car ploughed through the wall of a residential property in Cuckoo Avenue, Rustenburg. This incident occurred on September 3 at around 21h56.

According to police investigations, the driver of the Toyota who was travelling alone lost control over his vehicle and consequently crashed through the wall. He came to a halt just in time to avoid "diving" into the swimming pool.

The driver sustained minor lacerations (cuts) on his right arm. SAPS are still investigating the case.
