Accident claims 14 lives Police charge taxi driver

Rustenburg/ Zeerust – Police in the North West have opened a case of culpable homicide and reckless or negligent driving following the death of fourteen (14) people in an accident outside Zeerust last week.

The driver of the taxi – who was allegedly speeding when the accident occurred – is recovering in hospital together with a female passenger who was also involved in the collision. Police spokesperson in the North West, Col Lesego Metsi said SAPS are still investigating the matter.

Meanwhile, the Road Accident Fund (RAF) will provide financial assistance to the families of the people killed in the accident, the North West public safety department said. “MEC Desbo Mohono has welcomed assurance by the RAF that it would assist families of the [victims of the] horrendous Zeerust crash with costs towards burial,” said spokesman Lesiba Moses Kgwele. Among the dead were 11 teachers on their way to a National Professional Teachers Organisation SA workshop in Rustenburg.

55 Kids in 1 Taxi

Klipgat – A man was arrested for loading 55 pupils into a 15-seater minibus taxi near Klipgat in the North West on Tuesday, the department of public safety said (14 September 2011). Spokesperson Lesiba Moses Kgwele said the 53-year-old man was taking the pupils home after school, when he was stopped by traffic police. He was given a R2 500 fine and was taken to the Klipgat police station. Kgwele said the pupils – aged between 7 and 10 – had to be taken home by the police. Kgwele also said 35 taxis, nine buses and three freight vehicles had also been impounded in public transport operations in the province in the past week.
