The hawks bust Rustenburg law firm clerk and family for defrauding Road Accident Fund

Rustenburg – A fight against commercial crime paid off when the Rustenburg Organised Crime – Hawks arrested a law firm Clerk, Marthie Frederieka Mulder (39) and her husband Joubertus Hermanus Mulder (41) on Monday 12 September 2011 in Rustenburg.

It is alleged that Marthie was employed as a clerk for the law firm Van Velden & Duffey when she defrauded the firm by processing and submitting false and fraudulent claims to the Road Accident Fund amounting to R6 million. According to information received, illegal activities began during January 2007 until August 2011 and the suspect used the firm's trust account to channel claims payments to other counts. They [the 2 suspects] appeared before the court on Monday 12 September 2011, and were granted twenty-five thousand rand (R25000) bail each.

The suspect allegedly used the couple Frederiek Johannes Kruger (28) and his girlfriend Maliska Barnard (23) to process applications by playing roles of Medical Doctors. The two were arrested on Tuesday 13 September 2011 and appeared before the court the following day.

They were remanded in custody after the police opposed bail based on information that the two were planning to run away if granted bail. They are expected to appear before the court again Wednesday 21 September 2011 for formal bail application. They will also appear before the court together with the Mulder couple on 31 October 2011 to face charges of Fraud with an alternative of Theft.

The Asset Forfeiture Unit and the Hawks made an urgent court application to interdict the suspects not to sell their properties and also seize those properties acquired as proceeds of crime.

Police probe food poisoning

Rustenburg – Police in the North West are still investigating the circumstances that led to 18 people being rushed to different hospitals after having eaten contaminated food, which was prepared by vendors operating within the Rustenburg Taxi Rank.

Col Lesego Metsi told the Platinum Weekly that police would wait for the results of laboratory tests being carried out to determine if the food was contaminated. "In the meantime, we are urging people who have eaten this food to come forward so that they can tell us what actually happened. So far, we have talked to only 14 people and it would help our investigation if we are able to talk to more," said Col Metsi. No deaths was reported in this case.

A spokesperson at Peglerae Hospital – where some of the patients were transported to – said the people who had been brought in, were discharged a couple of days after being admitted.

Christian Band ROCKED Rustenburg High

Rustenburg – New stars in the making, a band called 'Creation' performed 4 of their songs at Rustenburg High on the 15th of September, in praise and worship. The vibe was amazing with pupils singing and cheering along.

To add to the spirit, the band performed on a roof, all the more hip-and-happening! The four songs were 'Sing-sing-sing', 'Nuwe Generasie', 'One Way' and 'I am Free'... and boy did they rock! The band members are: Charl Visagie (Drummer), Juandre Botha (Guitar), Rehal Knoetze (Vocalist), Zane Stapel (Vocalist), Werner Cordier (Guitar) and Reynders Brough (Bass Guitar). This band regularly performs at different Churches and plan to make their debut to the public... soon! Keep your eye on this group – they have a lot of potential!
