Tori Amos SA tour tickets sell out - NEW date added

The multiplatinum-selling musician will be in Johannesburg and Cape Town in November! Need I say more? Sadly for us, the Joburg tickets sold out just three hours after going on sale on Sunday morning. But not to fret! Organisers said in a statement that an extra date – 14 November in Joburg – has been added to the tour. More tickets have also been added for the 12th and 13th November shows, also in Johannesburg. Amos fans who will be in Cape Town should get moving quickly as those tickets are selling out fast as well, organisers say. Amos released her debut album, Little Earthquakes, in 1992 and has since had hits such as Cornflake Girl, Past the Mission and Professional Widow. She released an album of covers, Strange Little Girls, in 2001, where she took on tracks by Eminem, Slayer and the Beatles, amongst other artists. Her twelfth album, Night of Hunters, will be released this month. Tickets are available at Computicket and pricing starts at R390. See you there!!!

Kids + Circus = FUN!!!

Rustenburg – The Lions Club (Rustenburg), under the leadership of Lettie and Derek Frost, has recently given kids from Morester Kinderhuis a dream come true! Last Friday, 9 September They went to visit the Circus! It was a blast! Most kids from Morester have never been to a circus and bubbled happily, “This is awesome!” Their enthusiasm was quite contagious! Thank you Lions Club!

2nd Best

No, I refuse to be underestimated about my looks, intellectual abilities, qualities and capabilities. I refuse to be treated like low class, for I'm unique, beautiful and magnificently created by God. He looked at us and said, this is good, and what is declared of Him is true. No one is allowed to judge me, except GOD. For who can figure me out when I don't even fully understand myself? Only during the course of time, chapters will be added to my life and mould me into my true self. “Don't let people with limited perceptions define you”
