Side-Step Road Rage! 086 1400 800

086 1400 800 - This is a very important number to remember! Write it down; keep it in your car. This is not a gimmick! You can report bad driving at this number 24/7. They are efficient, and results-orientated. If you have the time to do a detailed report on whatever traffic offence you might have witnessed, you can also email it to the RTMC (Road Traffic Management Corporation) at ntcc@rpmc.co.za. Don't just talk about reckless drivers, report them. It is important to give as much detail as possible when you do report a violation. Most important details to furnish the RTMC are: the time, the place

(street name, town), the type of vehicle, colour, and registration number and of course the details of the offence. The RTMC (Road Traffic Management Corporation) face a tough challenge to fight lawlessness on our roads, to improve the overall safety of our road users and to encourage responsible road usage behaviour. If we work in harmony, side by side, we will achieve our common goal of safer roads and responsible road users. There is no room for self-interest. It does not matter if you are a driver, passenger, pedestrian
