Rustenburg Attorney Arrested for Speeding

Rustenburg – A Rustenburg-based attorney was arrested for speeding on the N4 Bakwena Platinum highway on Monday September 19, the North West Public Safety department said. "Traffic officers arrested the man when his BMW was caught doing 198km per hour in a 120km zone between Groot Marico and Zeerust," said spokesperson Lesiba Moses Kgwele. When pulled over, the attorney said he was rushing to Mahikeng to represent a client. The man was being held at a local police station and appeared in the Groot Marico Magistrate's Court on Tuesday, September 20. In the meantime, Transport Minister Sibusiso Ndebele plans to ask Cabinet to reduce the country's top speed limit from 120km/h to 100km/h (21 September 2011). "There are increasing calls and signs that something drastic needs to be done to arrest the current situation," Ndebele said in a statement on Tuesday. "Studies conducted in other countries such as Australia where the speed limit is 110 km/h indicate that a reduction in speed limit can save lives."
