It appears that most of the rape incidents occur when victims return home from taverns late at night and the early morning hours during weekends. The South African Police Service in the North West Province therefore appeals to women, young and old not to walk around at night without being accompanied by someone they know. Parents are advised to know the whereabouts of their children at all times, and to advise the nannies at their homes to lock their doors at all times. Criminals and rapists take advantage of those situations. It is always advisable for home owners to hire people known to them and only if they can supply references. If you do not know the person, firstly verify his identity before hiring him for any kind of service at your home.

Meanwhile, women are also advised not to take lifts from unknown motorists. Also be aware of criminals who often pose as hitch-hikers with the intention of carjacking unsuspected victims. Refrain from walking alone in dark and deserted places at night. Do not leave your car doors unlocked or windows open. Remember, if you appear uncertain and you do not know where you are going, do not panic since criminals may easily notice that you could be lost, rather drive to the closest police station or garage for directions. Press Release NW SAPS. And ladies of Rustenburg, please stay away from the three crime hot-spots in Rustenburg, as previously reported. 1. Kwagga's Pan (well known sight-seeing spot in the vicinity of the "cross" leading from First Avenue, as well as from behind the Civic Centre up the mountain) 2. Tuin street at the "Eastern Bypass", East End, near the sewerage farm. 3. Corner of Strumose & Lekkerbreek street, close to the Olympia Park stadium.
