A Strong Character...

A strong character is a gift from God, one that should not be wasted, but rather be explored and enhanced wisely. We all have this embedded within ourselves, but first we should recognise the gift and help each other to become stronger. This character strength should not be confused with competition with ourselves or others.

Building a strong character requires hope, trust and a good spirit between each other. Also important to note: You cannot build a strong character by yourself, it is only through God and others around you, that you can develop this trait. "A Courageous nation equals a successful nation"
