

Archbishop: "Free Youcef Nadarkhani"

Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu on Sunday condemned the possible death sentence for an Iranian pastor who renounced the Islamic faith and converted to Christianity.

"There are no religions that propagate violence, yet many who commit violent acts in the name of religion," he said in a statement.

"Forcing anybody to renounce his or her faith is an utter violation of our universal human and religious values, and renunciation of God."

Tutu appealed to Iranian authorities to free Youcef Nadarkhani, who was first imprisoned in 2006 on charges of apostasy and evangelism to Muslims. Nadarkhani was sentenced to death by hanging in November last year.

Following a number of appeal processes, a recent verdict included a provision for annulment of the death sentence should he recant his faith. Iran recently denied the pastor would be executed.

Relying on His Grace

Miracles are a reality – you just have to be aware of them. Miracles can take place at the work place, in your personal life and any other aspect of your life.

Restoration can be spoken upon your finances, marriage, relationships, health ... – pray for it!

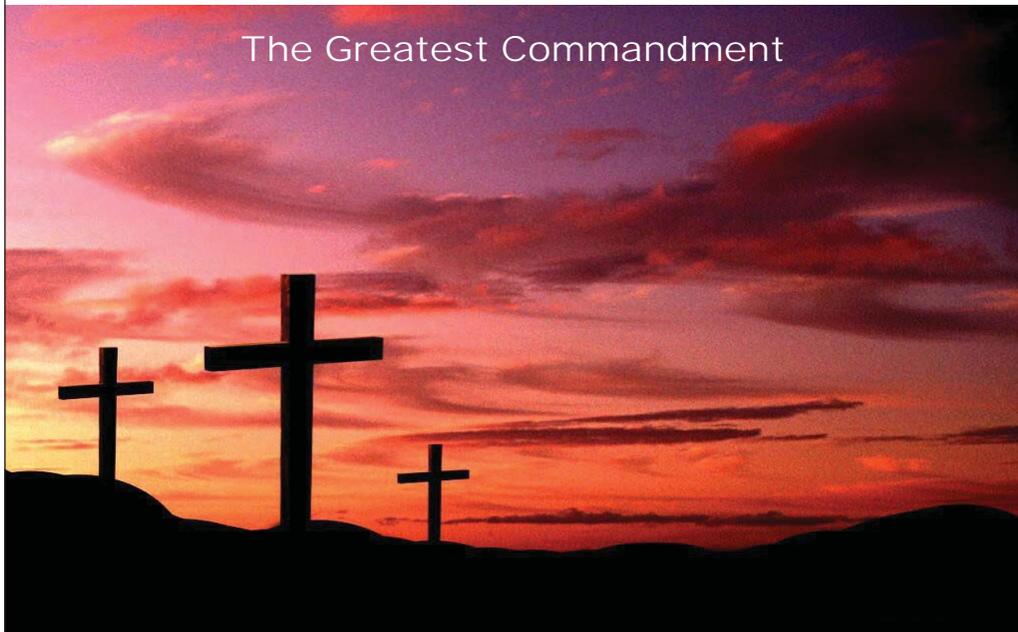

Prayer: Wonderful God, let renewing of the mind take place in our lives, so that we can see the Promised Land. Let us overcome our afflictions and challenges in our daily lives by developing patience. We declare by faith that Your Word is true and it will surely come to pass just as the prophecies made about your Son came to pass. Let us atune our minds to Your will and never let our mind be unoccupied by Your presence.

Deuteronomy 6 | New King James Version (NKJV)

The Greatest Commandment

¹ "Now this is the commandment, and these are the statutes and judgments which the LORD your God has commanded to teach you, that you may observe them in the land which you are crossing over to possess,

² that you may fear the LORD your God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days may be prolonged.

³ Therefore hear, O Israel, and be careful to observe it, that it may be well with you, and that you may multiply greatly as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you—'a land flowing with milk and honey.'

⁴ "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one! ⁵ You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.

⁶ "And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. ⁷ You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up. ⁸ You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. ⁹ You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Testimony of Brother Clemente

My wife Hilda and I emigrated from Portugal to South Africa in 1956 and settled in a lovely place called Rustenburg. I am now a healthy 80-year-old and have never deviated from the love of Jesus because He has, through his Holy Spirit, kept me and my wife close to Him. Thank you Jesus!

I want to share with you and testify to the world a miracle which occurred in our family.

We have been blessed with four lovely children who now are all grown up and married with families of their own, three of them live in South Africa and one is in San Jose in California, America.

My son married a South African girl and soon they conceived a beautiful little baby. However, they soon found out that the baby was not well and had to be prematurely born. Her breathing was very poor due to underdeveloped lungs and the doctors said that she will not survive due to her condition.

We soon realized that neither we, nor the doctors could do anything for this beautiful little girl – only God could. During one of our visits to the hospital, we turned back – I just had the feeling – and upon arrival, my son cried.

"What has happened?" I asked. My daughter in law answered, "Dad, she is gone."

I cried and began to weep and immediately wanted to see her. After difficulty, she was brought to us. I cradled her and cried out aloud "God please bring her back to life." As you can imagine, it was a very emotional time for all of us and the sister quietly turned and took the little baby out again.

Not three minutes later, while we were all comforting one another, we heard shouting and the sister came running into the waiting room screaming, "God has brought your baby back to life, she is alive!"

Oh! What joy filled our hearts and souls to realize that God has never changed, He is the same today as He raised Lazarus from the dead and He will be the same Forever.

I am so thankful that I serve a living God who cares so much about us. Praise His Name. This beautiful little girl turned into a 28-year-old lady.

I felt it upon my heart to share this story with the rest of the world.

Glory to God!
