Rustenburg – The Executive Mayor of the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality, Cllr Louis Diremelo, has revealed that all the municipality’s departments will soon be operating under a single roof in a development that will result in a massive cut on expenditure.

against poverty. This is why people elected us into office,” said Cllr Diremelo. The Mayor also revealed his plans to achieve a clean audit for the Municipality by 2014. He said: “We have won a Provincial award from SALGA for having unqualified reports. We are now pushing for a clean audit by the year 2014.

Currently, the Municipality estimates that it is spending about R8 million on the renting of all its offices, which are located in various parts of the city. “We cannot have a situation where less money is channelled towards service delivery projects. Before the end of the year, we will have all departments in the municipality operating under one roof. “This will go a long way in saving us a lot of money. We have made a lot of headway in this regard and we are confident that we will be able to reach our goal. “We intend to be the first municipality in the province to achieve this.

We also have in the pipeline, as part of our project, making sure that we continue supporting our five local municipalities in some of the major projects that they will be carrying out in the future.”
