Wolmarans to spend Christmas in Jail?

Rustenburg – Dont think so. The Platinum Weekly is of the opinion that both Wolmarans and Enoch Matshaba will also be released on bail shortly.

The case of former Rustenburg executive mayor Mathews Wolmarans and Enoch Matshaba – who are being accused of murdering corruption whistleblower Moss Phakoe in 2009 was postponed to 1 February 2012.

An appeal and release on bail is expected.

Meanwhile, two other suspects also being accused of conspiring to murder Phakoe – businessman Oupa Mphomane and Rustenburg Councillor Amos Mataboge were granted R30 000 and R5 000 bail respectively after they won an appeal against a previous bail denial. Magistrate Andrew Steenbok ruled that the case be transferred to Mmabatho, where the four will now be tried.

Matshaba was accused of killing Phakoe, whilst the others stand accused of plotting the killing of Phakoe, who was a vocal critic of alledged corrupt officials within the Rustenburg Local Municipality.

Phakoe was shot on March 14, 2009, at his home in Rustenburg North after two people ambushed him in the driveway of his home as he was just about to park his car.

It looks like the police are shaking the tree, expecting that nuts would fall... But it does not seem to work...
