5 of 7 escapees re-arrested

Klerksdorp/ Hartbeesfontein – An intelligence-led task team is working around the clock in tracing suspects who escaped from the Hartbeesfontein police cells on Sunday evening, 9 October 2011, at approximately 20h30. It is alleged that the seven prisoners awaiting trial were just finishing off in the gym/ exercise room, when they attacked and overpowered an officer, using his hand cuffs and pepper spray. As a consequence, the officer was locked in a cell and the seven (7) prisoners escaped through the main door. The relentless efforts by the Police led to the arrest of five suspects, Andrew Williams (21) initially arrested for a housebreaking case in Hartbeesfontein; Lucky Ntcalaza (23) initially charged with murder and robbery committed in Jouberton; Neo Geneke (23) charged with Possession of firearm (Jouberton); Thabiso Tsagae (24) charged with Murder (Klerksdorp); and Seuntjie Tubatsi (20) charged with Rape (Jouberton). These five suspects were re-arrested in areas including Hartbeesfontein, Jouberton and Mahikeng (17 October 2011). Due to these successes, the police are even more determined to bring the remaining two suspects to justice. They are Alfred Seitsho (23) charged with house breaking and theft (Hartbeesfontein and Tlhabane) and Tebogo Dodofu (18) charged with Rape (Jouberton). Anyone with information that can lead to the arrest of the suspects can contact their nearest police stations or the Hartbeesfontein Police Station at 018 4310433 or 086 100 10111.
