Grueling Murder...

Brits – Police in Brits are investigating a case of murder after Martin Kavuri, unknown age, was stabbed with a knife. It is alleged that the deceased and the related suspects were at a tavern in Sandfontein at Ngwenya Farm when an argument started between the three. A female suspect (33) allegedly gave the male suspect (35) a knife to stab the deceased in the throat. It is still unknown what led to the argument. The suspects were arrested and appeared briefly before the Brits Magistrate's Court on Monday, 24 October 2011. They have been remanded in custody while investigations continue.

Work toward a Corruption-Free Society

Rustenburg – The North West Anti-Corruption Forum rolled into Rustenburg on Friday October 21 as various stakeholders pledged to work towards a corruption-free society. The Provincial Anti-Corruption Forum – which was officially launched on the October 1 – primarily intends to advise the Government on National, Provincial and local initiatives on the implementation of strategies to combat fraud and corruption. Speaking at the Rustenburg Civic Centre, the Speaker of the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality – Cllr. Gugu Mtshali – said the scourge of corruption was evident in every facet of society. She said, "Corruption is everywhere. It is at home in the family, at work and in the church. It is everywhere – not just in government. We would like to make people aware of this. It is also important that these campaigns are led by religious people so that anyone can be able to confess if they feel that they want to do so. We hope that at the end of the day, we will be able to minimize the scourge of corruption." The Acting Speaker of the Rustenburg Local Municipality underscored the need for society to start acknowledging that corruption is a serious cancer.
