"SPCA SA Closing Down" Hoax e-mail

Rustenburg – The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) in South Africa is warning the public not to pay any attention to an e-mail claiming that the welfare organization is closing down. The Platinum Weekly also received this e-mail, which is soliciting for signatures to be included in a planned petition to the Department of Trade and Industry. The SPCA has also refuted claims made in the e-mail stating that the association received funds from the LOTTO.

"Neither we [SPCA Rustenburg] nor SPCA South Africa are closing down and we would like to let people know that this is just nonsense," said Mr. Gys Smit, who is the Chairman of the SPCA in Rustenburg. "We cannot understand why some people would want to circulate messages telling people that we are closing down. It is probably just to get attention from the public. People are just trying to create sensation here, but it has not affected our operations. We have not gone to the police because we know it can become problematic to trace the origins of these e-mails. However, we are just telling people not to pay any attention to the e-mails," added Mr. Smit. The SPCA is a welfare group that ensures that animals are not treated in a cruel way. If you would like to assist, or require more information about their activities, call 014 5923 181 or 083 2507 554. Alternatively, you can visit their website on www.nspca.co.za.

'My Future, My Business' Competition Extended

Closing Date: 31 October 2011

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – 'My Future, My Business' is a business plan competition facilitated by Royal Bafokeng Enterprise Development (RBED), which aims at encouraging the growth of small businesses in the Royal Bafokeng Nation. The 'My Future, My Business' competition has been spearheaded by Acting Managing Director of RBED, Mrs Thandeka Cwati, and seeks to encourage members of the Bafokeng community to take their business ideas from concepts to reality. Simultaneously, it also seeks to inspire existing business owners to grow their current businesses. The 'My Future, My Business' competition is a unique concept due to the fact that no formal business plan is needed. Entrants use a specifically designed, free entry form that defines their business model. The closing date for the competition has been extended to 31 October 2011. The 'My Future, My Business' competition will announce two winners and four runners up. The winners stand in line to win R20 000 in prizes and will be announced at the awards event. My Future, My Business entry forms is available at the RBED offices in Bafokeng Plaza and at the RBED offices located at Suite 34, Bafokeng Plaza, Phokeng.
