

Comrades 2012 Entries Rising Fast

With more than a month still left in its 2012 entry process, the iconic Comrades Marathon has already amassed its third highest field of international entries in its 87 year history. Runners from as far afield as Japan, Brazil, USA, the Indian subcontinent and a host of European countries will represent a current total of 53 nations in the world's greatest road running race. For the very first time, the Comrades Marathon Association (CMA) will welcome athletes from such exotic locations as Bahrain, Bermuda, the Cayman Islands, Malta, Oman, Slovenia, Thailand and Venezuela.

Entries for Comrades 2012 have been coming in hard and fast. As of today, the entry barometer stands at 10 678 which includes 938 international entries. The entry process for the 87th staging of South Africa's most famous road-running fixture opened on Spring Day, 1 September and will close on Wednesday, 30 November 2011 or as soon as the entry cap of 18 000 has been reached.

The entry period is three months long and open to all athletes, irrespective of them being veteran or novice Comrades runners. Qualifying for the 2012 Comrades Marathon is applicable as of 29 May 2011 until 4 May 2012. Runners have been urged to take careful note of the entry criteria.
