Copper 'deal' lands Rtb Police Captain in court

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – A Police Captain based in Rustenburg will make a second court appearance on 18 November to answer to allegations of theft and corruption. Captain Josephine Pilane (46) was granted R1 000 bail when she first appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrate's Court on Wednesday 26 October after being arrested the previous day over allegations of theft and corruption involving copper cable. It is alleged that on Monday 24 October 2011, the police captain took two rolls of copper cable to Solly Scrap Metals in Phokeng. The copper cables were forfeited to the state as they were handed in as lost-and-found property. The person in charge of the scrap yard was told to sell the copper cable and provide her with a receipt of R1100. The police captain gave a statement to the effect that the copper cable was indeed forfeited to the State as it was Eskom copper cable. What's more, she demanded an amount of R2100, which was handed over to her. In the interim, Tuesday 25 October 2011, an inspection was conducted at the Scrap Metal dealer under the Second Hands Good Act and the two rolls of copper cable were found and seized. In consequence, the police captain was arrested after the money and receipt were handed over to her. Her bail conditions stipulate that she must not interfere with the complainant or come close to his work place.

The Provincial Commissioner of the North West – Lieutenant General Zukiswa Mbombo – congratulated the Rustenburg police for arresting the officer. "Corruption will not be tolerated in the province, especially if it is done by one of our SAPS members."
