

BUSTED! Police uproot, seize dagga plants & MUCH MORE!

Rustenburg – Police in the North West have launched a ‘crackdown’ aimed at arresting people who are in the habit of growing dagga plants in their vegetable gardens.

During one of their raids in Boitekong, police uprooted dagga plants that were planted in backyard vegetable gardens of residential properties. Eight people have been arrested for illegal possession of dagga.

The Police also seized over five hundred litres of liquor from illegal dealers and sellers in the same area.

The Provincial Intervention Operations, aimed at assisting stations highly contributing to the Provincial crime statistics, continued to succeed in the fight against crime last weekend when they clamped down on shebeens, illicit drugs and dealing in counterfeit goods as well as second hand dealers.

The operation that was also aimed at enforcing the Road Traffic Act by apprehending 24 motorists failing to comply with the Act as well as for drunken driving.

The police also clamped down on scrap metal dealers for non-compliance with the Second Hands

Goods Act 23 of 1955 by failing to keep/ display compliance certificates after visiting 178 second hand goods stores around town and the industrial site.

The police also raided about 333 taverns in other areas.

Meanwhile, a complaint was received from Census South Africa that in Rustenburg, enumerators at Lethabong refused to hand over 57 boxes containing completed Census questionnaires and 29 bags and summary books.

This comes after they allegedly demanded to be paid R10 000 each for conducting Census duties around that area. The police members were dispatched to the area and 12 houses belonging to the Census officials, were raided by the police recovering the alleged goods. The boxes of questionnaires, 29 bags and 20 summary books which were later handed over to the National Secretary of Census South Africa, were confiscated.

The Provincial Commissioner in the Province, Lieutenant General Zukiswa Mbombo, commended members for their efforts in reducing the levels of crime in the Priority Stations such as Rustenburg, Mahikeng, Brits and Klerksdorp.

Power.....Interruptions

Rustenburg – All residents of the Rustenburg Local Municipality are hereby regrettably informed of the unforeseen power supply interruptions since the afternoon of 9th of November 2011. The cause of the power/ electricity interruption was the collapse of two major Eskom transformers that feed into Rustenburg.

Eskom technicians are working around the clock to fix the transformers. In the mean time, due to the fact that we now only have approximately 50% of normal electricity supply into Rustenburg, we have no other option but to provide power on a rotational basis throughout our city. This information was released by the Rustenburg Local Municipality on the 10th of November 2011, and no fore-cast of electricity shortages could be given at the time of going to press.

However, the rotational schedule of providing electricity was supplied as follows (for the 10th of Noember 2011).

- From 11h00-13h00 & 15h00-17h00: Cashaan Extension, Safari Gardens, Waterfall Mall, Farming areas along the Johannesburg Road, East End, Rustenburg Extension 2 (Industrial area and Mabe Park) will be supplied with electricity.

- From 13h00-15h00: Rustenburg CBD, Bo-Dorp, Cashaan X1 & Taxi Rank will be supplied with electricity.

- From 19h00-19h00: Rietvlei, Donkerhoek, Protea Park, Geelhout Park, Thlabane West & Taxi Rank will be supplied with electricity.

- From 19h00-midnight: All residential areas will be supplied with electricity.

These arrangements are subject to change at any given time.

“We hope to have a normal supply by the weekend, but if this is not achieved, we will keep the public informed accordingly.
