

Jong Samancor Sterre WYS hul Staal!

Potchefstroom – Die jaarlikse Samancor/ NWK Ontwikkelings Projek se wedstryde het die afgelope naweek 5 November 2011, plaasgevind op Senwes Park, Potchefstroom. Die geleentheid, om as skoolspanne op 'n wêreld-gehalte stadion te speel, is vir hierdie jong spelers iets waarvan ander droom. Die wedstryde is die tweede been van die projek. Die eerste been bestaan uit 'n Afrigtingskliniek wat jaarliks in Hartbeespoort aangebied word vir die skole en plaas skole van die omgewing deur die NW Dragons. Die talent ontdekking wat elke jaar gedoen word deur hierdie projek kan nooit onderskat word nie, het Mnr. Jacques Faul, Uitvoerende Bestuurs-hoof van Noordwes Krieket gesê. Die borgskap van Samancor neem krieket na die skoolspeler – die toekoms van krieket in ons provinsie – waarsonder dit andersins nie moontlik sou wees nie. “We, as Samancor Western Chrome, are very proud to be associated with the school cricket clinics and other cricket initiatives in the North West Province. We want to thank the North West Cricket Union (Dragons) for the way in which they are committed to assist us to fulfil our objective in bringing cricket to the black/ township schools. Traditionally the facilities and the actual game “cricket” were not visible in townships. We hope that this initiative will one day bear fruit when we will recognise some of these young black cricketers playing for the Proteas,” said Andre Opperman (Samancor).
