Cigarettes worth R1.5 million BUSTED!

Derdepoort – South African Police Service members from Derdepoort Border Post patrolling the borderline between Kopfontein and Derdepoort arrested two suspects – one a Bangladeshi national (38) and a South African (32).

Police confiscated 3750 cartons of Seviles cigarettes with a street value of R1.500 000 inside three vehicles. About 1 000 cartons of Remington Gold cigarettes were also found with a estimated value of R200 000.

The police also confiscated five cell phones and R21 100. According to the police, they spotted three stationary, suspicious-looking, vehicles

– a Renault Sandero, VW Transporter panel van and an Evcco panel van.

When the Police stopped the vehicles during a search, two suspects fled the scene. A case for possession of counterfeit cigarettes was opened at Nietverdiend and the two suspects were detained. The suspects appeared before Lehurutshe Magistrates' Court on 11 November 2011 and were remanded in custody. Police are still looking for the other two suspects who fled the scene on foot.
