'People should confront HIV issues'

Rustenburg – "People should openly confront issues related to HIV/Aids, as doing so is the first step towards effectively fighting this scourge," said Stina Modise, Acting HIV/Aids Coordinator of the Department of Health, Rustenburg. She was speaking during an event that was hosted by the Department of Health as a build-up to World Aids Day, which is celebrated each year on December 1. This event was aimed at raising awareness concerning HIV/Aids-related issues as well as to provide testing- and counselling services for volunteers. "We are pleased that, unlike in the past, people are now coming forward in vast numbers to get tested. This alone is a positive development. What we need now, is for people to change their behaviour. This is very important in the fight against HIV/Aids," Modise reiterated.
