8% less fatalities in NW

Preliminary 2016/17 Festive Season Road Safety Stats

The joy of Christmas is darkened by so many lives lost on the road this festive season. Nationally, a total of 1 714 fatalities were recorded this festive period, which is a 5% increase compared to the previous period.

The Minister of Transport, Ms Dipuo Peters, released the preliminary 2016/17 festive season road safety statistics on Tuesday, 10 January 2017, at the Protea Hotel, Midrand, Johannesburg. Minister Peters conveyed her heartfelt condolences to the families who lost loved ones during this period and sent well wishes to all those who are still recuperating in hospitals as well as at home. Read more on Pg2.
