Nur-ul-Iman's Well Done Ceremony

Rustenburg – On Thursday, 2 February 2017, the Nur-Ul-Iman Muslim School community gathered to bid the 2016 Grade 12 students farewell and to celebrate their achievements. Although the overriding tone of the occasion was jovial, there were also notes of nostalgia and sadness; moreover the speeches from Attiyah Patel (student), Moulana Mohammed (BOG Chairman) and Mr L. Nadasen (Principal) provided much food for thought. The event was very touching as the whole school and community gathered to remember the 13 year old journey of education and the students' excellent results they posted in 2016. It was fitting that Moulana Mohammed the BOG Chairman presented the Grade 12s with special awards. Every student was a winner as they were presented with certificates and gifts. The following awards were presented to the best achieving learners at the ceremony:
Grade 12 Awards: Top learner (6 distinctions): Ayesha Wadee, second best (5 distinctions): Attiyah Patel, and third best learner (5 distinctions): Nasereddine Berriche.
“As Nur-Ul-Iman Muslim School we would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the Zinniville community for supporting this noble cause. We wish the Class of 2016 all the best of success in their future endeavours!”

KARATEKAS EXCEL

Rustenburg – Congratulations to Sensei Isaac Nkomo who recently successfully graded for his 3rd black belt at SA JKA Karate. He has been training under the leadership of Shihan Chris Seabelo for over 20 years. In his time, Sensei Nkomo was the head coach of the martial arts programme at the Royal Bafokeng Sports. “Nkomo is a dedicated and passionate community leader,” says Shihan Seabelo. “I know him from a very young age and observed how involved he is in our communities, bringing upliftment and promoting a healthy lifestyle.” For more information, contact Shihan Chris Seabelo on 082-953 3809.

DIKWENA SECURE VICTORY OVER UNIAO DO SONGO

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – The Platinum Stars secured 1-0 victory against Uniao Do Songo in the preliminary round of the first leg of their CAF Confederation Cup clash at Royal Bafokeng Stadium on Saturday night, 11 February 2017. While both teams failed to find the net in the first half, Dikwena broke the deadlock when Robert Ng'ambi found the back of the net in the 63rd minute. Having claimed a 1-0 win against the Mozambican side, Dikwena will go into the second leg with an advantage on the tie. The second leg is set to be played this weekend. However, before going to Mozambique, the coach Cavin Johnson and his men will meet Baroka FC on Wednesday night, 15 February 2017 at Peter Mokaba Stadium in Polokwane in the Absa Premier Soccer League clash. Kick-off is at 19h30.
