Flash Floods - Trail of Destruction One Rustenburg Fatality

Selons River

Sunrise Park

Kgale Section, Phokeng.

The recent flash floods left a trail of destruction in Sunrise Park, Rustenburg. One person drowned in Lemenong Section (Rustenburg) after their vehicle was swept away by floodwaters. Two persons reportedly drowned, the second was found a day later, alive.

On Monday 20 February 2017, the following levels were reported; Hartebeespoort Dam: 100% with two floodgates open; Roodekoppies: 84% with four floodgates open; Vaalkopdam: 119% and flooding; and the Buffelspoort Dam: 109% with three floodgates open. According to Fire Protection Services, about 26 floodgates nationally are open. A farmer just outside of town reported approximately 340mm rainfall for a period of three days the past week. Read more on Pg10.
