Dikwena suffers 2-1 loss

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – The Mamelodi Sundowns extended their unbeaten run in the Absa Premiership to six matches as they sealed a 2-1 win over Platinum Stars on Tuesday night, 21 February 2017 at the Royal Bafokeng Stadium. It was Khama Billiat's late strike in the 82nd minute that sealed all three points for the Brazilians. Themba Zwane opened the scoring 11 minutes into the game with a brilliant right-footed finish. In the 3rd minute into the second half, Sphamandla Mlilo levelled the score to 1-1 however; Billiat's late strike restored the lead for Sundowns. Catch Platinum Stars away game with Bloemfontein Celtic in the Absa Premiership clash on Saturday, 25 February 2017 at Dr. Molemela Stadium. Kick-off is at 15h30 in the afternoon.

Rustenburg – The Platinum Weekly newspaper had the privilege to get acquainted with Naas Olivier, Newrak Impala Rugby club's business manager. With keen knowledge and a love for the game, Olivier has just joined the team and has big plans for the year ahead. The Rustenburg Newrak Impala Rugby Club men duly someone to be reckoned with! They are the best club team in the country for the last three years! Picture this... the club competes with about 1,000 teams nationwide and end up at the top! For that reason I ask you – are you a man ... or are you a mouse? Because if you're a man who likes a rugby-ball in your hand, teamwork to outwit your opponents and are willing to practice hard; you should join the club. Anyone who wants to join the club is more than welcome to contact renowned head coach Nico Le Roux, at 073-177 8299. The Newrak Impala Rugby Club currently has five teams where you can sign up; their first, second and third teams, and the u/19 and u/21 teams. They train on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 18h00. The Assupol series already kicked off in February. Clear your schedule on Saturday, 4 March 2017. On this day, Impala will take on Boksburg in a home game. The club is community orientated and anyone is welcome to join and enjoy the game. In addition, the club's facilities are among the best in the country. Their premises can be rented for 21st birthdays, conferences and much more. They also have a liquor license and boast with three spacious bars. Three events/ occasions can be hosted at the same time at the facilities. During the final Gold Cup last year, the club hosted about 4,500 people in one day! "Everything we do here is aimed at giving back to our players," said Olivier. "We deliver top rugby players. So we ask the community to get involved. Our guys work hard. After a long day at the office, they run out on the field to train. But..." Olivier said, "Our men also need a sustainable income. Should there be any business or organization that can help to provide employment opportunities for our men, we need to talk. We have the responsibility to plough back into our players, and we cannot do it alone."

The Newrak Impala Rugby Club's Annual General Meeting (AGM) takes place on 27 March 2016 at 18h30. All registered club members are invited to attend. For more information contact Naas Olivier on 082-926 8403.
