

Sterf aan Malaria

Northam – Dit is met leedwese dat die Northam gemeenskap afskeid neem van 21-jarige Johan Lamprecht. Lamprecht was 'n geliefde gemeenskaplid, 'n professionele jagter en het diep spore getrap in sy kort jare. Johan se werkgewer het hom 27 Februarie 2017 bewusteloos in sy woning aangetref en inderhaas na die Thabazimbi Mediclinic vervoer. Vandaar is hy oorgeplaas na die Life Peglerae –hospitaal te Rustenburg, waar hy Woensdag, 15 Maart 2017, beswyk het aan malaria omstreeks 05h30 die oggend. Lamprecht het voor sy dood verkoue simptome gehad, en nie malaria vermoed nie. Volgens Mari Meintjes van die boerevereniging, was Lamprecht se niere ook aangetas in die proses. "Ons is so geweldig geskok oor Johan se heengaan. Almal wat hom geken het, was lief vir hom!" Johan Lamprecht se begrafnisdiens word Saterdag, 18 Maart 2017, om 11 uur die oggend gehou vanuit die NG Kerk Wolmaransstad. Volgens Johan Young, 'n boer in die omgewing, is daar vermoedelik op Woensdag, 15 Maart 2017, berig dat 47 gevalle van malaria die afgelope paar weke gerapporteer is. Meer as 20 in die Ellisras gebied en die ander in die Thabazimbi en die Northam area.

WATERFALL MALL BREAK IN

Rustenburg – An armed robbery incident occurred in the early hours of Thursday morning, 16 March 2017, at the Waterfall Mall at approximately 02h00-03h00.

When two vehicles approached the mall, the security guards reacted immediately and called it in. The armed robbers, driving an X5 BMW and a light delivery vehicle, gained access to the mall via Placecol's shopfront, and thereafter broke into Incredible Connection and the Scoin Shop. The intruders were in the process of setting up explosives at the Tower Foreign Exchange when the police arrived. They fled the scene empty-handed after a shootout ensued.

One of the Fidelity guards was assaulted during the incident, but was not severely injured.

"We would like to inform patrons that Waterfall Mall's safety procedure was followed by the security. An investigation by the police is underway and the mall is giving them full support," Jessica Varty, marketing manager of the Waterfall Mall, said.

"The safety of our tenants and shoppers is our top priority and we have extensive security procedures in place at Waterfall Mall," she added.

At this time, the number of suspects is unclear.

"No arrests have been made, but the police investigations continue," Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said.
