Moses Kotane Municipal Excellence Awards

Rustenburg – The Department of Local Government and Human Settlements in the North West Province launched the Moses Kotane Municipal Excellence Awards on Wednesday, 22 March 2017 at the Hunters Rest Protea Hotel in Rustenburg. The Minister of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs, Desmond Van Rooyen applauded the Local Government and Department of Human Settlements for the introduction of the Moses Kotane

Municipal Excellence Awards. Aimed at recognising good performance and awarding innovations as well as good practices in municipalities; the Minister of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs, Desmond Van Rooyen applauded the Local Government and Department of Human Settlements for introducing these awards. “The launch of these awards gives you the opportunity to prepare and be part of the municipalities which will be receiving awards, come next year,” Van Rooyen said. Premier Supra Mahumapelo who was part of the launch believed the awards provides a feedback mechanism that each municipality can use to assess its performance, improve the quality of life of community members through the delivery of quality services. About six municipalities in the province including the Rustenburg Local Municipality were first recipients of the Moses Kotane Excellence

Awards. MEC for Local Government and Human Settlements Galaletsang Gaolaolwe said, “The awards are designed not only to reward the best performing municipalities and municipal representatives in a given year, but also to inspire others that are battling with various challenges, to overcome them and set an example through exceptional performance in the delivery of services to the communities in Bokone Bophirima.”

NW Hawks clamp down on Driving School owner

NW – The Hawks in the North West have arrested nine traffic examiners, a driving school owner and a driving school administration clerk for fraud and corruption, on 23 March 2017. The Hawks conducted an intelligence-driven operation, aimed at dismantling fraud and corrupt activities at traffic stations and driving schools within the province. The Provincial Head of the Hawks, Major General Mbanana, said the Hawks will not rest until fraud and corruption is uprooted.

Life for Murder x2

Rustenburg – The North West High court sitting in Rustenburg under Judge President Leeuw, sentenced two Lesotho nationals, Sakane Kauku Molotsane (32) and Lebohng Masole Mathosa (35) to life imprisonment, on Monday, 20 March 2017. The two Lesotho nationals murdered Lebohng Mathews Mathole (25) in March 2015. They were also sentenced to an additional 20 years imprisonment for kidnapping, ten years for attempted robbery, fifteen years for the unlawful possession of a firearm and five years for the unlawful possession of ammunition. All sentences are to run concurrently. Mathole was murdered in Photsaneng, outside Rustenburg, after being shot twice in the chest. “Detective Sergeant Qetya under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Chomela, spent sleepless nights investigating the matter and made sure that the culprits were brought to book within a month. The Rustenburg station commander Brigadier Gertrude Modise welcomed the sentence and commended both detectives’ excellent investigative skills,” Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, said.

Theft of Toyota Hilux bakkies on the increase

Rustenburg – The Police in Mogwase arrested Thabang Sekgaila for the possession of stolen goods. Sekgaila and his gang have been terrorising Mogwase and Moruleng with their burglaries, and is finally brought to book. He appeared before court on 3 March 2017, and was remanded in custody until his next court appearance on Thursday, 6 April 2017. During his arrest, Sekgaila was found in possession of copper cables, cell phones and household appliances’ amongst others. “The Mogwase Police herewith also warns that the theft of Toyota Hilux bakkies are on the increase,” Sgt Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, said.

Stolen goods the Police recovered.
