

Some of the youngsters at the Platinum Weekly newspaper – wishing you a tremendously awesome year, filled with grace and love!

A new year brings new beginnings

Rustenburg – I would like to wish all of our readers, clients, friends and colleagues a happy and blessed new year. A new year brings with it new hope. I sincerely hope and hold tight to the belief that this year would surpass all other years, bringing peace and patience to all in 2018. To our young people, I wish you every success, and through effort, training, perseverance and hard work, you will find the place you aspire to occupy at the heart of society. To our seniors, to whom we owe so much, I express my gratitude especially for their gift of giving us generations to come. I also express to them the hope of health and serenity.

May this year bring the blessings of peace, the beauty of hope, the spirit of love and the comfort of faith to each and every one, Happy New Year!
