16 FEBRUARY 2018

Rustenburg – Day zero is fast approaching for the residents of Cape Town. Even though the community of Rustenburg has seen the darker side of life in the past few months, we are still able to open our hearts to those in need.

Rolyn Engineering and Water 2 Go have launched a project to collect water for the drought-stricken Cape Town. Read more on page 4.

9 Arrested in union killings conspiracy

Rustenburg – Three hitmen and six masterminds were arrested on Saturday night at about 23h00, 10 February, with regards to the planned and systematic murder of union leaders. In a move to bring all the guilty parties to book, police minister Fikile Mbalula (in the photo) announced during a special media briefing on Sunday morning, 11 February at the Rustenburg Police Station, that police had arrested nine suspects simultaneously throughout three provinces in connection with the recent killings of Association of Mineworkers and Construction Union (AMCU) leaders.
