14-YEAR OLD GIRL GOES MISSING

Maphokgo/ Limpopo – A 14-year old girl, Tshegofatso Flesher Malata from Maphokgo village, has gone missing. According to police in Rakgoadi near Groblersdal, the girl was last seen on 21 February 2018 when she went to play with friends.

Her grandmother only realised the following day that she had not returned home. She then embarked on a search for the girl. She went to the girl's relatives and friends but could not find her. Tshegofatso was last seen wearing a long, blue dress with pink, white and green stripes and had no shoes on at the time of her disappearance.

A police search was launched but to date has not yielded any positive results. Police spokesperson, detective warrant officer Malose Mothokwa is appealing to the public to come forward with information that could help locate the whereabouts of the girl.

He can be contacted on 082-359 1845. People could also call the crime stop number 08600 10111 or the crime stop SMS line on 32211 or visit the nearest police station.
