From left: sergeants Mogonyane and Khaha, lieutenant colonel Govender, sergeants Molefe and Montshing, and constable Kubatsi of the Flying Squad, posing with the loot found on the three arrested suspects.

Rustenburg/ Tlhabane – Three suspects, aged 32, 41 and 46, are in custody following their arrest for a robbery in Tlhabane on Monday, 19 March.

The suspects drove a silver i10 Hyundai and robbed a local shop owned by a foreign national in Oukasie and sped off. Members of the South African Police Service (SAPS) Flying Squad who were on patrol in the area, received the intel and swiftly responded. They spotted the get-away car a few minutes later at the GG section and signalled it to stop. Instead, the suspects' sped away and a chase ensued. The suspects were cornered and arrested a few streets further. On searching the suspects' car, the police found an undisclosed amount of cash, cigarettes, cell phones, groceries and a knife, which was allegedly used in an earlier business robbery. According to sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, the suspects are soon to appear before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court on charges of the possession of suspected stolen property and the possession of a dangerous weapon. A charge of business robbery will possibly be added at a later stage pending investigations.

Another attack on teachers by learners

Zeerust – The incidents of attacks on school teachers by learners seem to be escalating with the assault of five teachers at Rearabilwe Secondary School in Ntsoeletsoke Village near Zeerust on 7 March.

In a press statement issued by the North West Education and Sport Development, MEC Sello Lehari condemned the incident in the strongest terms.

In what is becoming fashionable, two Grade 10 learners aged 21 and 18 years old, reportedly played loud music with their cell phones, disrupting lessons. The headmaster ordered the two learners to bring their parents to a meeting the following day.

One of the learners brought along a parent and was taken through a disciplinary process and was subsequently suspended for seven days... something that didn't go down well with him and his co-accused. According to the statement, the next day the two went to the school's assembly, in disregard of the suspension penalty.

The boys reportedly disrupted the assembly and attacked five teachers who were part of the disciplinary team.

The statement said it was only when Grade 12 learners intervened that the situation calmed down. The teachers, who suffered minor injuries, opened a case of assault.

"On behalf of the department, I condemn the assault of the five teachers by learners at Rearabilwe Secondary school," said Lehari.
