Darren Archer, deaf and not about to give up

Rustenburg – Darren Archer, 31, believes in the credo of trying and trying again as he prepares to enter the Miss/ Mrs and Mr Deaf South Africa (MDSA) contest scheduled for 28 October in Pretoria. Archer works as the CCTV administrator for Rustenburg Steel Construction and comes from Grahamstown in the Eastern Cape.
A year ago, he entered the MDSA and was lucky to walk away with the title - Mr Deaf Charity.
“It took me a while to reconsider to enter again and it was because of the incredible support I received, that I decided to enter again. I have learnt more about deaf culture and the deaf community and how SASL as a 12th official language is important to them,” said Darren. “I feel very positive about this year’s MDSA and it’s my busiest year because I’m also one of the models during the MMMDG (Miss, Mr and Mrs Deaf Galaxy) another name for Universe hosted by Worthy Women NPC. It is the first time it will be held in South Africa during two fashion shows at Hartbeespoort Dam in May,” Darren added.

Spirit of no surrender drives Darren Archer.

The next clean-up will take place on 5 May. For more information please contact Martha Lerm on 079-110 2087 or Theuns Peens on 084-645 6607.
Theunis Peens told the Platinum Weekly newspaper that the work and shared comradery of working towards a shared goal was a great experience: “It’s great to be able to join other people who share our passion and want to help clean our once beautiful town.”

The little ones also jumped in and helped, here are Mia Lerm and Tonika Pretorius.
